AIMS AND SCOPE

Virus Research will provide a means of rapid publication for original papers and occasional review articles on fundamental research concerning virus structure, replication and pathogenesis. These will include reports describing virus morphology, the function and antigenic analysis of virus structural components, virus genome structure and expression, effects of viruses on their host cells, and molecular mechanisms in the pathogenesis of virus infections.

Papers for possible inclusion in the first issue should be submitted to the Editors-in-Chief:

Editors-in-Chief:
B. W. J. Mahy, Department of Pathology, Division of Virology, University of Cambridge, Addenbrooke's Hospital, Hills Road, Cambridge CB2 2QG, U.K.
